“As the Father of the Nation Mahatma Gandhi said – The best way to find yourself is to lose yourself in the service of others. So, I am here as a serviceman of my country,” said Archil Dzuliashvili, Ambassador of Georgia to India at an interactive meeting organized by All India Association of Industries (AIAI) and World Trade Centre (WTC), Mumbai in association with the Consulate of Georgia in Mumbai.

Dzuliashvili said that “I respect India for its great history, great culture, largest democracy and major economy is a Nation of Bright Future”. This year, the Embassy of Georgia in India is celebrating the 25th anniversary of the establishment of diplomatic relations with India and the Georgian Ambassador vowed to enhance consultations and explore possibilities of co-operation with India in the fields of culture, trade and economy.

Earlier in his welcome remarks, Vijay Kalantri, President, All India Association of Industries and Vice Chairman, WTC, said, “I hope India would improve its ties with Georgia under the leadership of the new Ambassador. Georgia is a potential hub for India’s trade with the European Union. The country offers huge opportunity for entertainment industry due to its scenic beauties. The country has a liberal visa regime as it offers visa on arrival for foreigners holding visas of the USA, UK, EU and Shenzhen. Today, the bilateral trade between both the countries stand at USD 107 million and I expect it to grow higher and faster in the next five years.”
